

MISSENDEN ABBAY

Great meetings happen at Missenden Abbey.... and when you take your inside meeting....outside, then our team building activities can help bring your delegates together in another dimension.

Incorporating team building into your team meeting, provides a powerful tool to work with your team on a different level; taking your delegates outdoors to experiential learning provides a unique tool for individuals and team development. Once back in the office, these skills are integrated into the business.

Missenden Abbey is a picturesque venue set within 10 acres of grounds, with the perfect blend of an historic building with many of its original features, and a purpose-built conference and training facility - The Coach House.

Whether you are looking to organise a team meeting or want to bring together regional offices to present the corporate strategy, the facilities on offer at Missenden Abbey have everything you need.
